

Will's Wordplay – Quick and Clever

Will Shakespeare used so many quips, puns, and plays on words in his plays that if you're not careful, you'll miss them. Here are a few we've seen so far – with a partner, determine what was meant by the first speaker, and how it was interpreted or turned around by the second. What about each scene makes it funny?

- 1.3.25-33 (“Fie, that you’ll say so!”)
- 1.3.48-59 (“Accost, Sir Andrew, accost!”)
- 1.3.18-19 (“Faith, I can cut a caper.”)
- 1.5.22-24 (“Not so, neither, but I am resolved...”)
- 1.5.38-51 (“Go to, you’re a dry Fool.”)
- 1.5.122-124 (“Cousin...how have you come so early by this lethargy?”)
- 1.5.149-153 (“What kind o’ man is he?”)
- 2.3.61-63 (“An you love me, let’s do it.”)
- 2.3.87-94 (“My masters, are you mad?”)
